

PROM-POSAL GUIDELINES from the banquet committee

This year's prom will be featuring the PromPosal contest, again, which is open to all juniors and seniors. Video your "promposal" and email it to the provided email address. Finalists will be announced in mid-February.

The winning couple will receive priority for dinner line and photo-taking.

Guidelines (not just for the contest, but in general):

1. "Promposals" during class time will be disqualified.
2. Any that are disruptive to the school environment or leave a mess will be disqualified.
3. Disqualifications will be made by the junior class advisors.
4. Think about the "receivers" end, as well, when you plan for your PromPosal. Questions to ponder: "Would she like to be put in a spotlight in front of many people?" "Would she feel awkward by being asked by me in this way?"
5. Anything inappropriate will be referred to Mr. Frontiera.
6. The advisers will be looking for the most thoughtful, funniest, or sweetest PromPosals;

⇒ "Promposals" should not leave the person feeling asked uncomfortable or embarrassed, and no points will be awarded for spending more money. Also, remember the promposal does NOT have to be in front of everyone to be sweet!

Example 1

Mr. Frontiera used to surf all the time, so when he was in high school, a girl asked him to Skaties by showing up to his house wearing fins, a mask, and snorkeling attire. Quite creative!

You could even have one group of friends ask another group to come with them!

This is not just restricted to couples.

All submissions need to be sent to the following email address:

HBAPromCommittee@gmail.com

All emails need to include the names of all students in the video (all of the PromPosal; and the entire Promposal;) and their graduation years.

The deadline for submissions is , Friday, FEBRUARY 17TH.

Please see Sensei Yoo or Anika Keuning with any questions, comments, or concerns. Happy promposing!
